

MELLON DIGITAL HUMANITIES STEERING COMMITTEE FACULTY GRANTS CALL FOR PROPOSALS

In conjunction with Skillman Library's Digital Scholarship Services department, the Digital Humanities Steering Committee invites proposals from Lafayette faculty for developing digital humanities initiatives in the classroom or in furthering scholarly engagement with DH.

We will be continuing to fund both classroom projects and professional development:

DH Professional and Research Development

Applications due: Open call

Explore the Digital Humanities in your own scholarship.

Possible uses of funds include:

- DH conferences
- Training in a specific DH tool or methodology
 - workshops or intensive courses
- Travel to archives/libraries or other sources of research material
- Collaboration with colleagues at other institutions
- Travel to DH centers for networking and idea generation

Visit sites.lafayette.edu/dhlaf for a list of local and regional opportunities.

Funding is also available for EXCEL Scholars dedicated to DH projects, including summer as well as academic-year appointments.

DH in the Classroom

Applications due: June 1

Supplement your syllabus with a DH assignment or project.

Grants of $2000 will be awarded to applicants seeking to use digital humanities tools and methodologies in a course to extend existing modes of interpretation and analysis, and to generate new research questions.

Funding will provide:

- Support for the development of a digital research assignment or class project that supports the key learning outcomes for a humanities class.
- Consultation from the Library's DSS in planning, building, and executing your digital endeavor.

We will help you develop this project every step of the way.
